

Kathy Loveless, MS, CSP

THINK BIG. PLAY BIG.

Founder and CEO, Loveless Enterprises, Inc.

A member of the Million-Dollar Speakers Group of the National Speakers Association, Kathy Loveless for 32 years has managed a professional speaking and management consulting firm.

She has developed and presented over 1000 executive leadership and management programs throughout Europe, Africa, Japan, New Zealand, Canada, and in nearly every state in the U.S., helping clients perform at levels never imagined.

Among her more than 100 Federal clients are the CIA, 7th Army Command throughout Germany, U. S. Departments of Defense, Interior, and Justice. She has served hundreds of private clients such as DuPont, AT&T, 3M Corp. and many Native American Tribes.

A certified executive coach and trainer for government leaders and staff, she has developed numerous programs to help government agencies function more effectively. Additionally, she was a sub-contractor on such projects and the I-15 reconstruction, the University Light Rail, Wasatch County Water Efficiency Study, the Central Utah Water Completion Study, and more.

For years, she taught State and Local Government in the Political Science Department and Organizational Analysis in the Masters of Public Administration Department at the U. of U.

Kathy worked for 14 years for the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. at the U.S. Department of the Interior as a Public Affairs Officer and Editor of the national magazine on water and power, Reclamation Era., managed a 17-state program from Denver in Citizen Participation, and was Regional Public Affairs Officer for a 7-state region in Salt Lake City. She has been vice president of an investment banking firm, and marketing director of an independent energy firm.

She founded Loveless Enterprises, Inc. in 1990 and still loves going to work everyday!

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate and 2020 Distinguished Alumna of the University of Utah, she holds a Masters of Science degree from American University in Washington, D.C. and has completed all but the dissertation defense for a Ph.D. in quantitative data analysis from George Washington University. As Miss Utah for Miss America, she spoke world wide and achieved the “Wizard” level of the International Brotherhood of Magicians. She was featured in an episode of The Learning Channel’s (TLC) national reality television show, “A Makeover Story,” now having aired more than 50 times in the U.S. and internationally.

A survivor of Stage IV, non-smoker lung cancer and COVID-19, she is an international cyclist and skier. Married for 40 years to the late Scott W. Loveless of the law firm, Parr Brown Gee and Loveless, she cherishes their two daughters and sons-in-law and nine grandchildren.

For decades, she has volunteered in a wide variety of capacities and seeks everyday to help others live their best lives. She believes, “You create your own reality, either out of positive expectations or fear.”
